FIRST MEETING

Of the Win-My-Chum Week Services
In the Third Street M. E. Church
Last Evening Well Attended—
Excellent Speaker.

The opening of the Win-My-Chum Week services in the Third Street M. E. Church last evening was attended by a large crowd, there being 116 present. Enthusiasm was very high and the series of meetings shows that promise of becoming very successful as in the past.

Miss Virginia M. Hurd was the speaker for the evening. Her subject, "If They Cannot Believe in You, Will They Believe in Your Christ," was well-treated and presented in a well-chosen manner. At the conclusion of her address, Rev. S. K. Hunt, the pastor of the church, made a few remarks upon the lines Miss Hurd had spoken.

Tonight, Rev. E. E. Jackson, pastor of the Second M. E. Church, South, will be the speaker. Mr. Jackson is one of the new ministers in the city. His subject for the evening will be, "The Bugle Call to Courage."

A cordial welcome is extended to all desiring to attend the services. Special musical numbers will be rendered at each service. The services will be made as different as possible each night, but all will have the central thought of winning souls for the Kingdom.

ALL DONE

Vastine, Noland and Lowrey Saturday finished their original contract with the city for the construction of the brick streets on Bridge and East Second street east of Limestone Bridge. The street will now be inspected by the city engineer, who, if he finds it to meet all of the requirements, will report to the City Council the same and the bill of the contractors will be allowed. Progress on their second contract is going on nicely, all of the concreting having been done. The tar crew worked yesterday.

STILL IMPROVING

Mr. John R. Morford of Covington who was badly electrically shocked several weeks ago, is improving slowly. He is still at the St. Elizabeth Hospital in that city. Mr. Morford is the father of Mrs. J. H. Richardson of East Second street.

GETS THE LIMIT

Roy Harris Tried in Judge Rice's Court Saturday Morning for Bootlegging Is Fined $100 and Given Fifty Days in Jail
By Jury.

Roy Harris, who was arrested at the Bates and Rogers Construction Camp Friday by Mr. John Mitchell, special constable, was tried in Judge Rice's court Saturday before a jury and fined $100 and given fifty days in jail for bootlegging.

Harris had offered to sell to one of the cooks at the camp a pint of whiskey for $1.25. The cook did not have the quarter with him and went into his room to get the same. When he came back he discovered that Mr. Mitchell had arrested the man for bootlegging. Harris had three pints and a half of whiskey on his person when captured.

The man said that the cook wanted to buy the whiskey from him but that he was saving it for himself. He said that he had been employed at the dam and had later gone to Ashland and then to Portsmouth. He said he returned to the dam the night before his arrest.

The jury, composed of Messrs. George Frank, John B. Furlong, Eneas Myall, W. D. Frazee, J. T. Kackley and Henry Shea were in session only a few moments before returning a verdict. They gave the young man the limit.

WOOD BRAMEL

Prominent Maysville Citizen Dies in Cincinnati Sunday Morning After an Illness of Stomach Trouble —Will Be Buried Here.

Mr. Wood Bramel of this city died in Cincinnati yesterday morning in one of the large hospitals in that city, after an extended illness of stomach trouble. Mr. Bramel had been a sufferer for a long time but not until recently was he compelled to go to the hospital. He had consulted some of the best specialists in the country but all were unable to help him.

Mr. Bramel was one of this city's most prominent residents. For a number of years he conducted a coal yard here and was known to almost every citizen of the county. He was also connected with the Maysville tobacco Market and owned shares in one of the large warehouses.

Mr. Bramel is survived by his wife, and four children, two sons and two daughters. He is also survived by three sisters and one brother.

The remains will arrive this afternoon at 1:40 and will be taken to the late home on Forest avenue. The funeral announcement will be made in a later issue of the Ledger.

SELLS INTEREST

Mr. Morris Coughlin, the senior member of the firm of Coughlin & Co., local liverymen and undertakers, sold his interest in the firm Friday to Mr. James Dwire of the county, a prominent farmer. Mr. Dwire takes possession of his interest immediately. The firm of Coughlin & Co. was one of the best known in this section of the state and it will undoubtedly enjoy the same place with the change in the ownership. Mr. Thomas Higgins and Mr. C. A. Slattery are the other members of the firm.

BOY BURNED

A boy was severely burned by tar Sunday afternoon at the tar wagon of Vastine, Noland and Lowrey on East Second street. The boy was not an employee of the contractors but was pouring tar to pass away time. His foot became caught in some tar and in endeavoring to pull loose his tar can was jerked suddenly slipping the contents on his face.

NOTHING DOING

Maysville will not be able to secure the John Robinson Famous Shows and the Howe London Circus for wintering here. The Chamber of Commerce took hold of the plan and spent some time Saturday in looking for a location but were unable to find a suitable place. Had the city been able to get the circus to come here it would have meant a great thing for the merchants.

REMEMBER

That PENNINGTON, if elected, will represent Mason county as well as other parts of the district.

INSURANCE COMPANY

Will Aid in the Fight Against the Great White Plague, Co-operating With the National Society for the Eradication of Tuberculosis.

The recent Mississippi Valley conference on tuberculosis held during the first week of last month at Louisville, Ky., seems to have produced early results. The Western & Southern Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati has announced a plan to co-operate with the National Association in the study of tuberculosis. The meeting held in Portsmouth, Ohio, was attended by all the insurance representatives from Portsmouth, Manchester and Ripley, Ohio, and Vancuburg, Augusta, and Maysville, Ky. Mr. Louising the company's supervisor of agencies was present on the occasion, and in his remarks he pointed out the fact that the discussions and addresses by physicians and officials at the recent conference it was generally agreed that the complete eradication of the "white plague" was possible. He stated that in the city of Cincinnati, where during the past 5 years had been persistently and scientifically fought by the Cincinnati Tubercular League, and reported that 22 per cent decrease in the death rate from tuberculosis from the past 5 years has been accomplished. The company proposed to make the various State Auxiliary National Association in those states in which it operates, and its 1500 field men has been enrolled as "modern crusaders," who will report to the proper officials any case of tuberculosis or insipient tuberculosis which may come to their notice, and such cases will receive the attention of the state branch of the National Association, and be accorded treatment at dispensaries of sanitariums when feasible.

INFANT DIES

The six weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran of the county died Friday night. The burial was made in Maysville Cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Today is the last day discount of the November 1 gas bills.

WHY

Can some of our Democratic friends tell us why it was, that in 1915, Edward J. McDermott, one of the most gifted men in this State, only received 226 votes in Macon county, for the nomination for Governor out of a total of 2000 cast. While in 1916, W. J. Fields received 600 out of a total of 1000 cast. Considering the fitness of the two men—why the difference?

MR. VOTER

In 1912 the Democrats proclaimed from every stump, "Elect Woodrow Wilson your President. He will reduce the high cost of living." We have had almost four years of Wilson. Has he reduced the cost of living?

COMPARE THE FOLLOWING

Retail prices of commodities every family has to have which prevailed at the end of the Republican administration of Taft, under Protective Tariff in 1912:	Retail prices of commodities every family has to have which prevailed in 1916 under the war-made prosperity of the Wilson administration:
Sugar, per pound.....6½c	Sugar, per pound.....10c
Lard compound, per pound.....10c	Lard compound, per pound.....20c
Flour, per sack.....65c	Flour, per sack.....$1.30
Meal, per sack.....45c	Meal, per sack.....80c
Bulk Meat, per pound.....12½c	Bulk Meat, per pound.....20c
Potatoes, per bushel.....80c	Potatoes, per bushel.....$2.40
Canned Corn, per dozen.....$1.00	Canned Corn, per dozen.....$1.80
Canned Tomatoes, per dozen.....$1.00	Canned Tomatoes, per dozen.....$1.80
Navy Beans, per pound.....5c	Navy Beans, per pound.....20c

To say nothing of a 25 to 50 per cent. advance in clothing and shoes.

The Democrats promised us four years ago that they would reduce the high cost of living—Have They? On the other hand the cost of the necessities of life have advanced only 50 per cent under the War Prosperity of Wilson.

WE ARE NOT TOO PROUD TO EAT

Is he the poor man's friend? There is only one remedy—

Vote Right

Vote Right

PERMANENT PROSPERITY ESSENTIAL

Railway employees who are inclined to vote for President Wilson because of his share in the enactment of legislation ordering an increase of wages for 20 per cent of such employees should keep carefully in mind the effect of Democratic legislation upon railroad employment prior to the time when the European war revived American industry.

On June 30, 1913, prior to the enactment of the Underwood tariff law, the number of employes on steam railroads was 1,832,000. On June 30, 1914, the number had dropped to 1,719,296, and even then the railroads were keeping many men for whom they had no actual need. Figures are not yet available showing the number on the pay roll on June 30, 1915, but it is estimated that the number was somewhere between 1,600,000 and 1,700,000. Certain it is that many of the important railroads of the country had discontinued some of their trains, had laid off a great many of their employees engaged in the up-keep of the roads and equipment, and, because of diminished traffic, had cut expenses wherever possible. During that period of depression in American business, there were more miles of railroad in the hands of receivers than ever before in our history. Although the population of the country had been rapidly increasing and new regions opened up to settlement, there was diminution in the construction of new mileage.

Railroad employees who have reasonably good memories can clearly recollect conditions that existed during that period of depression only two or three years ago when so many of them were out of employment and when so many idle men were seeking the jobs of those who had not been dismissed. At that time not a man in the railroad service was in a position to demand or even ask an increase of wages. There were hundreds of thousands of men ready to take the jobs at lower pay. The rush of business incident to war orders put the railroads in a more prosperous condition and necessitated re-employment of those who had been dismissed. It was this situation that gave railroad employees an opportunity to demand and enforce an increase of wages.

The question now before them is whether they will vote for the continuance of an Administration that brought on an industrial depression affecting the whole country in ordinary times, in return for special legislation which that Administration enacted in extraordinary times for the benefit of a small per cent of the people of the country and to the injury of the great majority. In other words, do the train men of the country desire to trust the destinies of the nation to the hands of an Administration that disregards the permanent welfare of all the people, and, under coercion, legislates for the benefit of a small portion of the people?

In the spring of 1914, the Democratic Governor Glynn, of New York, sent a message to the legislature, stating in part that "in the past fall and winter the problem of the unemployed has steadily grown more acute and that whatever the state can do to provide work for the unemployed it is morally bound to do." Democratic free trade and the President's slogan of "sharpening of wits" with foreign labor were then in full swing.

Democratic Prosperity in 1914

Below is a sample of the sort of news that was appearing in the papers during the months when Mr. Wilson and his party were trying to produce prosperity without the assistance of munitions contracts. The date is January 1, 1914.

MARCHING IDLE ARMY
CRIED FOR FOOD UPON
STROKE OF NEW YEAR

Five Hundred Men Paraded the Streets of Chicago.

"You Are Drunk and We Are Hungry," They Shouted.

Broke Windows and Punctured Tires of Automobiles.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH.)
CHICAGO, January 1.—Eating restaurants and demanding food, breaking windows and puncturing automobile tires, a crowd of nearly 500 unemployed men, early this morning marched through Chicago's business district. They furnished a strange contrast to New Year revelers who were leaving the cafes and restaurants.

The men marched in State street, four abreast, carrying a banner which read: "We demand work, no charity." They halted street cars and ordered the passengers that they were to work. At Van Buren street the police halted the marchers, but they soon returned their line farther down the street.

"Hey, you know what's up?" shouted a pedestrian from the curb.

"You are drunk and we are hungry," replied one of the leaders. The band finally broke up into small groups.

AGED WOMAN

Run Down and Feeble—Made Strong By Vinol.

So many people in Maysville and vicinity are in Mrs. Wickersham's condition we ask you to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, and if it fails to benefit we will return your money.

In her eighty-second year Mrs. John Wickersham, of Russellville, Pa., says: "I was in a run-down, feeble condition and had lost flesh. A neighbor asked me to try Vinol, and after taking two bottles my strength returned; I am gaining in flesh, it has built up my health and I am feeling fine for a woman of my age, so I get around and do my housework."

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Wickersham's case was because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened run-down system and create strength.

Right here in Maysville we have seen such excellent results from Vinol that it is a pleasure to know it is doing so much good for old people in other parts of the country. John C. Pecor Drug Co., Maysville. Also at the leading drug store in all Kentucky towns.

WILSON DEEMED IT FUTILE TO STAND FIRMLY.

President Wilson seeks to justify himself on the ground that it was "futile" and dangerous to "stand firmly." This is an appeal that can with equal truth be made by every soldier who runs away in battle. He further alleges his belief that the cause he championed "has the sanction of the judgment of society in its favor." I remember thirty-odd years ago in the Black Hills a local vigilance committee which was in doubt about hanging a suspected wrongdoer. While they were discussing the matter, there appeared over the neighboring divide a frowny, elderly horseman in a linen duster, who promptly galloped towards them waving his arms and shouting "Hang him! Hang him!" The leader of the vigilantes at once asked the frowny stranger what he knew of the facts, whereupon the stranger answered: "I do not know anything about the facts, and I never saw the man before; but there's eleven of you and only one of him, and I believe in majority rule!" This is merely a picturesque paraphrase of what Mr. Wilson calls action under "the sanction of society." It exemplifies the principle upon which President Wilson has acted in those public matters, internal and external, where he was threatened with the use of force.—From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

COL. ROOSEVELT APPEALS FOR THE ELECTION OF MR. HUGHES.

I appeal to my fellow citizens that they shall elect Mr. Hughes and repudiate Mr. Wilson because only by so doing can they save America from that taint of gross selfishness and cowardice which we owe to Mr. Wilson's substitution of adroit elocution for straightforward action. The permanent interests of the American people lie, not in ease and comfort for the moment, no matter how obtained, as Mr. Wilson would teach us; but in resolute championship of the ideals of national and international democratic duty, and in preparedness to make this championship effective by our strength. President Wilson embodies in his person that most dangerous doctrine which teaches our people that when confronted with really formidable responsibilities we can shirk trouble and labor and risk, and avoid duty by the simple process of drugging our souls with the narcotic of meaningless phrasemongering. Mr. Hughes, to the exact contrary, embodies the ideal of service rendered through conscientious effort in the face of danger and difficulty. Mr. Wilson turns his words into deeds only if this can be achieved by adroit political maneuvering, by bartering a debauched civil service for congressional votes on behalf of some measure which he had solemnly promised to oppose. Our own self-respect demands that we support the man of deeds done in the open against the man of furtive and shifting political maneuvers; the man of service against the man who whenever opposed by a dangerous foe always takes refuge in empty elocution.—From the Speech of Col. Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

The great trouble with the "more daylight" plan is that we are going to have to turn down in the evening what we turn up in the morning.

A soft answer will not turn away an agent with something to sell.

There is no buttermilk of human kindness.

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

EXODUS OF VOTERS BEGUN—THOUSANDS OF TEMPORARY RESIDENTS IN CAPITAL LEAVE FOR HOMES.

Washington, November 3.—The quadrennial exodus of voters temporarily resident in Washington has begun. Every outbound train carries them, and railroad agents conservatively estimated today that more than 3,000 voters' tickets had been sold during the past few days, with many of these, who live nearby, still to be provided for. Among these voters are Government clerks and officials, both Democratic and Republican. Some have been living and working in Washington for years, but still cling to their right to cast a ballot in their home districts at least once every four years.

BUSHELS OF FLIES

The championship in the fly contest, inaugurated at West Union, last June, when health officer, W. E. Kincaid, announced a reward of $5.00 to the West Union resident able to produce the greatest number of fly scalps at the close of the open season for flies, was on Wednesday morning of this week awarded to Miss Opal Jones, who produced 43 punts—dry measure—of the dead bodies of the victims of her fly catching activities. Mrs. C. A. Trotter was second with 41 punts to her credit. A total of 384 punts—six bushels, stroke measure—were turned over to the health officer during the contest.

UNDERWOOD TARIFF IS HOSTILE TO THE FARMERS' INTERESTS

Union Leader Asks Congress to Get Back to the Soil—With Protection

Would Raise Plow to the Level of the Factory.

Henry N. Pope, president of the Association of State Farmers' Union Presidents, has issued a statement in pamphlet form to members of the union pointing out discriminations in the Underwood tariff against the agricultural interests favoring protection on all farm products and demanding a revision of the tariff so that the farmers will not be compelled to sell in a free market and buy in a protected one. In discussing the subject the head of the union said: "The effect of the Underwood tariff acts to protect capital and labor engaged in manufacturing and to expose to world competition capital and labor engaged in production. It is perhaps the most antagonistic expression congress ever made toward the agricultural interests of this nation, and had not the European war arrested its operation, would have wrought disaster to the farmers of the country. This tariff gives a protection of approximately six billion dollars per annum to capital and labor engaged in manufacturing, but gives no protection to the farms. When released from war influences this tariff will reduce the selling price of farm products approximately a billion dollars per annum. It brings capital and labor employed on the farm in direct competion with free lands in primitive countries and compels the farmer to compete with wild men who live in trees and caves and raise their children in nakedness and ignorance. The only purpose and the only result of taking agricultural products off the protected and placing them on the free list was to reduce the price. The act was therefore deliberately unfriendly to the farmers of the nation. The next session of congress should revise the tariff and get back to the soil with protection. Giving to the plow the same friendly consideration that is now given to the factory.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT—RIVAL PARTY MANAGERS IN CHICAGO PREDICT VICTORY TUESDAY

Chicago, November 3.—Managers of the Republican and the Democratic Western headquarters here each expressed today confidence that his party would be victorious in next Tuesday's election.

Alvin T. Hert, Republican manager, announced that final reports from states in his jurisdiction were more favorable than any yet received. Republican leaders today claimed Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Idaho, and even Missouri and Kentucky as certain for Hughes and Fairbanks.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh, Democratic Western manager, issued a statement declaring Democratic prospects never were brighter. The statement said final reports indicated every Western state claimed by the Republicans is either reasonably safe for President Wilson or doubtful.

Democrats will close their campaign in Chicago tomorrow with a mass meeting for business men and rallies for men and women in every section of the city.

Republicans will end their fight with noon meetings at hundreds of factories, rallies for women in each Congressional district, and a torchlight parade through the down-town streets at night.

KICKERS' CORNER WORK FINISHED; OFFICES CLOSED

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open--walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing--but don't make your "kicks" too long--it's the short, quick fellows that count--and cut.

The sense of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

ECHOES FROM THE MEYERS CASE

Apparently inspired by some disappointed member of the Board of Health of the City of Maysville, an article appeared in the Saturday's issue of the Independent edited by a member of the Board of Health, criticizing the verdict of the jury finding a citizen of the Sixth Ward not guilty of maintaining a nuisance under the law and facts in the case.

The issue presented to the jury was not whether the defendant's hog pen was unsightly or whether it was capable of giving rise to objectionable odor, but whether in point of fact as it existed it was a nuisance. Not a single neighbor or citizen of the Sixth Ward, excluding the members of the Board of Health, by the prosecution was introduced; but on the contrary, the defendant introduced four witnesses some of whom were neighbors, who testified that the defendant's hog pen as kept by him was not objectionable to them nor a nuisance. Being the sole judges of the weight of the evidence and the credibility of the witnesses, the jury determined from the evidence presented under the instructions of the court that the guilt of the defendant had not been proved beyond a reasonable doubt. This decision under their oaths to do justice between the parties and under the facts in the case and the instructions of the court could not have been otherwise.

Nevertheless, the article in question undertakes to impugn the motives of the jury, and, if inspired by any member of the Board of Health, it shows to what extent the Board is willing to go in enforcing their preconceived notions and theories whether right or wrong. Covert attacks upon men who are as sincere and honest as any member of the Board of Health, because in their administration of the law the outcome is not pleasing to the Board of Health, will not advance the cause of which the Board are the professed champions. Motives of intimidation, however subtle, are sometimes the best evidence of the spirit of persecution; or at least a willingness upon the part of some who are clothed with a little brief authority to use the forms of law as means of oppression. In brief, he who invokes the law, should be the last person to criticize the law which he invokes; and should not feel sore if it proves a boomerang.

FAIR PLAY.

THE HOG QUESTION SOME MORE

Editor of the Ledger: I noticed in yesterday's issue where anyone was invited to enter into your so-called "Kicker's Corner" and as I am much interested in that line I thought I would take advantage of your invitation. I want to give the jury my sincere thanks for their decision in the hog case against Mr. Myers, not only because it was a help to Mr. Myers but to others in the same boat. For, I am in favor of a poor man raising all he can and whatever he can to live on.

I am not blaming the Board of Health in their attempt to clean up. But why not get onto other things which are of no use to anyone. I would not deprive anyone of anything, only of a terrible odor. I would not deprive the so-called "Cracker Neckers" of their right which they observed when they consented to consolidate with the City of Maysville. But in this case if a man keeps hogs and his pens become so bad that the neighbors complain against them and say that they are a nuisance, then is the time for the Board of Health to act and order him to abate the nuisance. Everyone will regard each other and will help the Board. But don't deprive the poor man of raising what he cannot afford to buy like you can. For his income is not as large as yours. Right is right.

And if others expect to be treated right in the future they must treat the "Cracker Neckers" right in this case.

Democratic and Republican Chairmen Claim Majority in Kentucky —Workers Go Home—Petty Says G. O. P. Will Win in Five Congressional District Races.

Louisville, Ky., November 5—With the work of months behind them, and facing the test of tomorrow with hope and confidence, the campaign managers of both the Republican and Democratic parties in Louisville will rest on their oars tomorrow. Headquarters of both organizations were deserted today, except for occasional visitors. Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, the Democratic chairman, and the workers in his office will leave for their homes tomorrow to be on hand to vote. Discussion of expected majorities in this and other states was the chief business of today. Ludlow F. Petty, the Republican manager, likewise has completed his work, although most of his workers were at headquarters today. As was to have been expected, both sides claim the victory.

G. O. P. Claims Five Districts
The Democratic State Committee has predicted that Woodrow Wilson will get a plurality of 15,000 in Kentucky, while Chairman Petty says Charles E. Hughes will capture Kentucky's thirteen electoral votes by a plurality of 9,200. The Republicans claim the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts, while the Democrats insist they will sweep all of the first nine districts and will come out of the Republican strongholds in the mountains with more Democratic votes than ever before. The Fifth District Committee, of which Colonel Frank McGrath is chairman, expects to give President Wilson and Representative Swager a majority of at least 4,500. The Republicans say they will carry the city and county for Hughes by 5,000.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM WILSON'S HOME STATE

Trenton, N. J., November 5—The home state of President Wilson, which has been the scene of many hard fought political battles, is claimed tonight by both parties. The Republican forecast victory by 45,000 and the Democrats by 25,000.

A special effort has been made this year by the Republican State Committee in behalf of the party's Congressional candidates. The claim was twelve Representatives. That party now has eight and the Democrats four. The Democrats dispute the assertion of their opponents, however, and contend that the candidates of their party will be successful in five districts. Vigorous campaigns have been conducted by United States Senator James E. Martine, who seeks another term, after winning renomination in primary contests, and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, the Republican nominee for the Senate.

Candidates on the state ticket will continue their speech-making until late tomorrow night. Both H. Otto Wittmann, naval officer of the port of New York, the Democratic candidate for governor, and Walter E. Edge, of Atlantic City, his Republican opponent, professed today to be certain of victory.

Be sure to vote for the Commission Form of Government.
